Prague, Nov. 1.

COunt Lobcowits, whom the Emperor is ſending to the Court of Bavaria, will be diſpatched in a day or two. It is ſaid he will propoſe a Marriage between the Elector and the Emperors Daughter, or at leaſt endeavor to prevent that Electors marrying with a French Lady. What was ſaid of Chancellor Smidt, and other of the Electors Officers who are lookt upon to be favourers of the French Intereſts, being diſgraced, is not confirmed.

Prague, Nov. 4. This Court is much alarmed at the news a Courier ſent by the Duke of Lorrain brought them, which is, that the French demand 700 thouſand Florins of the Country of Briſgow, four whereof they pretend to be due before the Peace, and three ſince; a Sum that Country is in its preſent ruined condition, altogether unable to pay. We are told that the Emperor has reſolved in the preſent poſture of affairs, not to intermeddle in this matter, and to leave the Country to make the beſt compoſition it can; but in the mean time moſt people are of opinion that if the French proceed after this manner the Peace cannot laſt long.

Ratisbonne, Nov. 7. On Friday laſt arrived here the Marquis de Vitry Envoy Extraordinary from the Moſt Chriſtian King to the Emperor, and the next day continued his journy, intending to paſs through Bavaria. The ſame day came hither Count Lobcowits, from Prague, who underſtanding that Monſieur Colbert the French Ambaſſador was arrived at Munekeu, the Elector of Bavaria's Court, immediately haſtened his journy thither.

Francfort, Novemb. 8. Yeſterday the Chapter of Mentz made choice of the Baron of Ingelſheim to be their Archbiſhop and Elector. The ſame day the Prince of Furſtemberg parted hence for Mentz.

Hamburg, Nov. 12. By the Interims Receſs between the King of Denmark and this City, it is agreed,

I. That his Majeſty and this City ſhall remain unprejudiced in their ſeveral Rights and Pretentions; and that the Point of Homage ſhall be amicably determined, by Treaty, or by an ordinary Proceſs before the Chamber of Spire; and that in the mean time this City ſhall enjoy a Neutrality and free Commerce as formerly.

II. That this City with a thankful Acknowledgement of His Majeſties good Will towards them, ſhall remain in an humble devotion towards him, and ſhall to the utmoſt of their power further his good [illegible] prevent any evil they know likely to happen to him.

III. That for greater manifeſtation of this their Devotion, this City ſhall ſend a formal Deputation to his Majeſty.

IV. That this City, in conſideration of his Majeſties being pleaſed to receive them again into his favour, ſhall pay him 220000 Crowns at four Terms, the firſt Payment to be made immediately after the Ratifying the Receſs; the ſecond within ſix Months after; and the third and laſt at the end of the other ſix Months.

V. That his Majeſty ſhall quit all his Pretentions upon any Lands, which this City at preſent holds, in particular or in common with the City of Lubeck; ſhall releaſe the Ships ſtopt at Gluckſtadt, and ſhall Ratifie this Receſs within eight days.

Hamburg, Nov. 14. On Saturday laſt the Deputies of this City were to wait upon the King at his quarters at Pinnenberg, and being admitted to Audience, ſpoke to him in the following words.

Moſt Serene, and Moſt Potent King, Moſt Gracious Lord.

WHereas your Royal Majeſty is by the Mercy of God happily arrived in theſe your Dukedom, and conſequently in the Neighborhood of this City of Hamburg, and hath cauſed Propoſals, conſiſting in three Points, to be made to the ſaid City, and hath deſired their Reſolution thereupon: And whereas the firſt Point, through the ſhortneſs of the time, and for other Reaſons, could not be determined at preſent; and that your Majeſty hath therefore been graciouſly pleaſed to refer the ſame to an amicable Agreement, or to a legal Determination; and in the mean time to remove the diſpleaſure you had taken againſt the ſaid City; and by an Interims Receſs graciouſly to agree, That as well the Rights and Pretentions of your Majeſty, as of the ſaid City, ſhall remain unprejudiced; The Burghermaſters, and Raedts Deputies, do in the name of themſelves, and of all the Burghers, appear before your Majeſty, and do promiſe faithfully to obſerve the ſaid Interims Receſs in all its Points and Clauſes; and particularly to bear your Majeſty moſt humble and becoming Devotion; That to the utmoſt of their power, they will further your Majeſties Good, and hinder all ill and detriment from happening to your Majeſty. Provided this City be left in a quiet and undiſturbed enjoyment of their Neutrality and Commerce, and of all their Rights and Priviledges; and that the Rights of his Imperial Majeſty and the Empire be maintained.

To which the King returned a very kind Anſwer; Aſſured them of his good Will; and that he would punctually obſerve on his part this Agreement. After which the Deputies were treated at Supper by the Court-Marſhall, and ſo returned hither. This day our Magiſtrates made a noble entertainment for the Mediators: and Sunday next is appointed for a Thankſgiving day. The Daniſh Army is marched towards Flensberg, where will be held a general Rendevous.

Hamburg, Nov. 14. The Daniſh Army is gone into Winter-quarters, without talk of disbanding any, except ſome Officers, and making the Dragoons Musketeers. Some report that new Regiments are to be raiſed in the Spring, and that the King has ſome further deſign in his thoughts. The Deputies of this City when they were to wait upon the King, preſented him with a Band this City had
